Certuse Room

Mansfield High

Wake up, grab breakfast, search for a parking spot, two blocks, lunch, last two blocks of the day, practice, color guard, choir, homework, dinner, bed. Another ordinary day?
Anything but...

We are nothing short of dedicated, not only to our academics but, also to extra curricular activities. Our day begins at 7:25 in the morning when we walk through the front door and continues through four blocks of the day. Our commitment to our school does not end when the bell rings at 1:49. The devotion continues after school with athletics, drama club, newspaper and yearbook.

Every student who passes through the doors is unique. As you walk through the crowded halls, hundreds of faces pass you by and none are the same. Mansfield is not just a school of 1400 students, but a school of 1400 individuals. Guitarists, point guards, artists, actors, journalists - everyone is different.

Our athletics are legendary. They will forever be remembered as the best. Countless teams have achieved the Hockomock League champion title. Our athletes surpass the high standards placed upon them. They will never back down from a challenge and never settle for mediocrity. We will leave a legacy of greatness.

And of course, the seniors are memorable. Every class that has graduated has left its legacy and every class that follows will leave its own. Upperclassmen pass down traditions to younger siblings, sports teams, and clubs. No matter what, they will not soon be forgotten.

YEARBOOK DEDICATION

Mrs. Porter & Ms. Baldini

The class of 2007 dedicates the yearbook to Ms. Baldini and Mrs. Porter. They are not only our class advisers, but they have been our teachers and mentors throughout our four years of high school. They have served as guidance throughout our high school experience. During the Homecoming rallies, fundraisers, prom, and senior trips, they have been by our side through it all. Our success can only be attributed to their dedication and tireless efforts. It was Mrs. Porter and Ms. Baldini that took the risk in supporting Matchmaker. This fundraiser alone helped to raise thousands of dollars, not to mention hours of conversation among the student body. The road to prom was long and difficult, however they worked to ensure that our experience was one to remember. We were "Swept Away" by their attention to detail. Thank you for your continued support - your contributions did not go unnoticed.

"They were passionate and took the time to relate to our grade both individually and as a whole."
-Bridget Martin

"As class advisers they were selfless and dedicated endless hours to benefit our class."
-Lauren Desmond

In Memory of Julie Duggan

October 8, 1988 - June 23, 2002

We would like to remember our classmate Julie Duggan, who died at the age of thirteen after a long battle with Cystic Fibrosis. She loved school and excelled in all of her courses. In our eighth-grade yearbook she was named "Most Conscientious", a title she truly deserved. She never missed an assignment and maintained an "A" average, even though she was often out of the classroom as her illness progressed. Julie dreamed of attending an Ivy League university and becoming a scientist, a dream that was undoubtedly achievable for such a talented and driven student. In her diary she selflessly wrote of her dream to discover cures for childhood diseases. She often wrote of her true passions: God, family, and friends - reaffirming that she put others before herself. She prayed that scientists would be able to find a cure for her disease, if not for her, then for other children similarly affected. Julie was not only dedicated to school but also to her friends to whom she was always willing to share a laugh or a tear. Julie never complained of her struggles with Cystic Fibrosis. Although she was afflicted by this devastating illness, she maintained a giving and lighthearted spirit, qualities that we should all strive for. Julie, the Class of 2007 misses you!

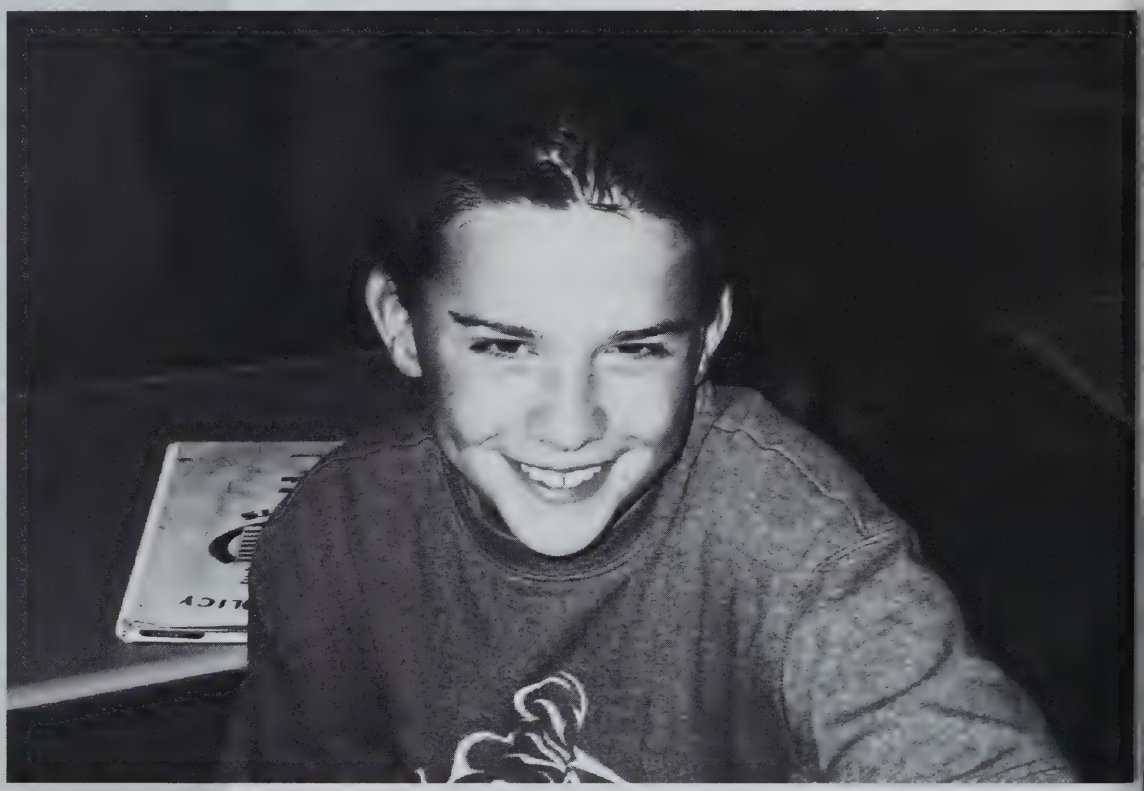
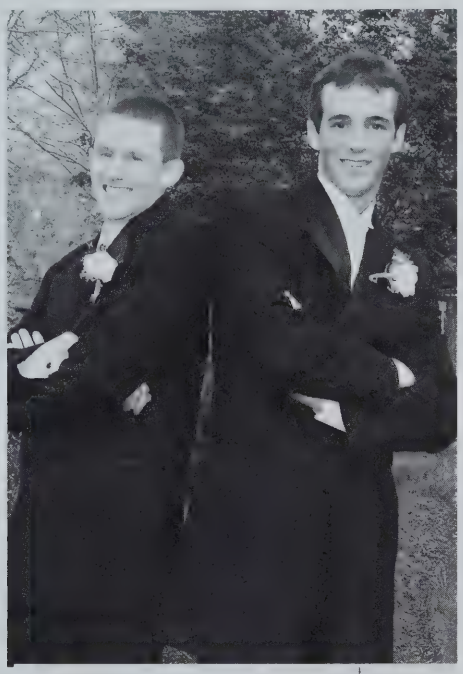
Nurtured Seeds...



As the seniors reflect on the past four years of growth and excitement, we too often forget our roots. Ask your parents. It is not that long ago when you too were the same age as a Little Hornet. A young, impressionable mind, eager to mature and learn. Most of us have been in the Mansfield School system for the past 12 years, and though we have been exposed to the same environment and same education, we have become independent and unique adolescents. We started at the Jordan Jackson as kindergarteners anxious to make new friends. We referred to the friendly janitor as "Big Guy" but now we know his name is Bob, and he isn't that tall. We graduated elementary school and moved on to QMS. After far too many morning announcements, in which Mr. Reardon stated the Qualters Ideal, we were ready to move on to the High School. We entered ninth grade with naiveté and anxst. And how much we have changed...



We are 306 unique individuals, with different goals, strengths, morals and flaws. When we walk across that stage and recieve our diplomas, and as you enjoy the family graduation party... remember. Remember the free, superb education we received that inspired our intellect, inspired your service, and inspired our being. We are not finished. At the age of eighteen we have an entire life ahead. We are not paralyzed in this being. We have much to learn. And as we move on we will continue to change, but the person we have become in the past four years has laid a foundation for the rest of our lives. So, upon leaving Mansfield High School let's forget the influence it had on the formative years of our lives. Instead, let's take our acheivements and take our mistakes. Let's use these attributes and in the challenges we are bound to face. We have completed four years of high school, but this is not the end, we are in the midst of our lives, we are works in progress.

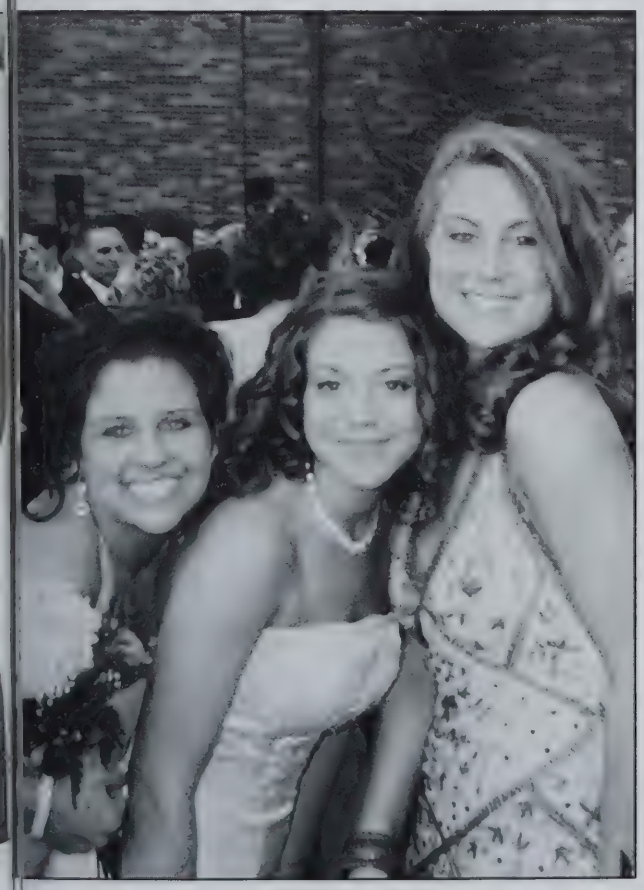
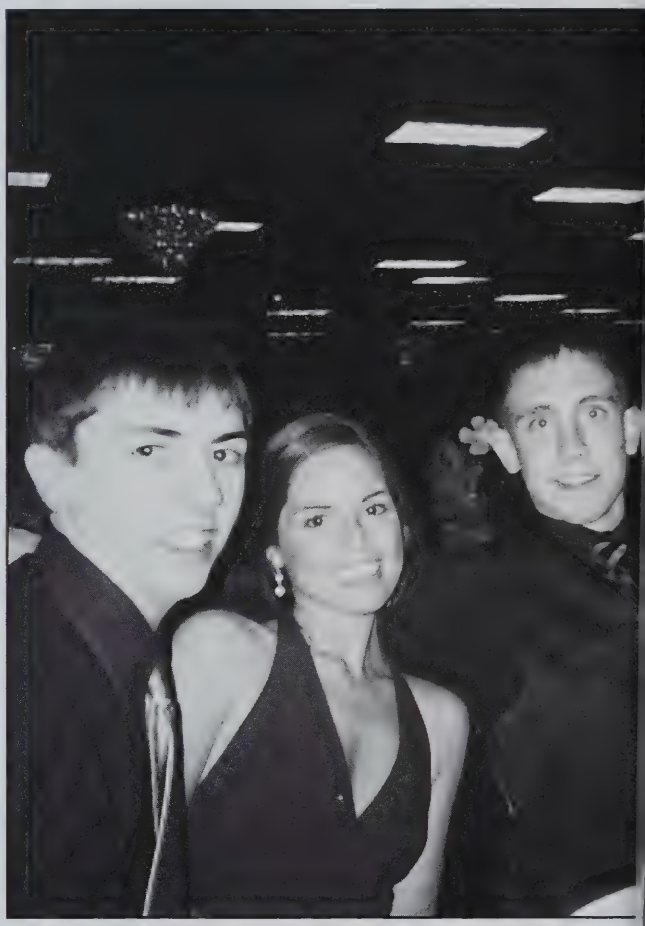
Dancing with the Stars

The fancy cars and limos crowded Christina's parking lot as the night Mansfield students and their guests had been looking forward to finally arrived. The guys were striking in their tuxes while leading the ladies in their elegant dresses. Before entering, friends scrambled to pose for last minute pictures in the courtyard. Everyone swarmed into the lobby with excitement as they were greeted with a beach-like atmosphere. A sandy walkway lined with ropes led into the main entrance.

Once the excitement had settled, everyone was seated and dinner was served. Students anxiously scurried to the dance floor as Mr. Conti played crowd favorites such as "SHOUT!" and "Laffy Taffy". Matt Birnie and Hillary Crook shared a dance after being crowned prom king and queen. Joining them on the prom court were Charese Zimmer, Sarah Passanissi, Julie Abreau, Eric Dipiertantonio, Jake Bolin and Ryan Murphy. The night wrapped up with Bruce Springstein's "Secret Garden" and the guests departed with photo boxes to store their prom memories.





Spirit Week

As Mansfield looked to their upcoming match against the Franklin Panthers, our students showed their spirit by filling the halls with crazy costumes and spirited outfits.

The week began with Professional Sports Day. All grades were decked out in their favorite sports apparel from football to baseball. Halfway through the week brought occupations of all kinds for Profession Day. Popular jobs included nurses and construction workers. While other more unique students were dressed as chefs, pirates, and fishermen. On Thursday, students found their doubles for the popular Twin Day. Identical attire was required with two creative seniors dressing in penguin suits. For the last day of Spirit Week, the school was bombarded with green and white to show support for Fall sports.

With the week ending on Green &White Day fall athletes wore their uniforms to school with football players adorning their jerseys to get ready for the homecoming game. Everyone was excited and hopeful for a victory as well as exhausted from their week of school spirit.

Home Coming

The homecoming excitement began on October 14th with the traditional parade. The floats along with the homecoming queen and her court started at the school and ended at Alumni field for the game.

The Hornets faced off against the Panthers of Franklin. It was a perfect day for football. At half time, the queen and court were presented as tradition. The court was escorted by senior sports captains. The court included freshman Aly Dorval and Brittany Abany, sophomores Amanda Whillete and Supna Agrawal, juniors Cecily Citino and Rae Franzen, and seniors Charese Zimmer and Caitlin Parker. The homecoming queen, Julie Abreau, was escorted by senior captain Ryan Collins because her king, Ryan Murphy, was in the looker room listening to Coach Redding's half time speech and getting ready to play the second half.

The game ended up being a landslide. Mansfield defeated Franklin by a score of 31-0. All the students were happy with the result and ready to continue the fun. The night finished off with students spending the evening dancing with friends at the annual homecoming dance.

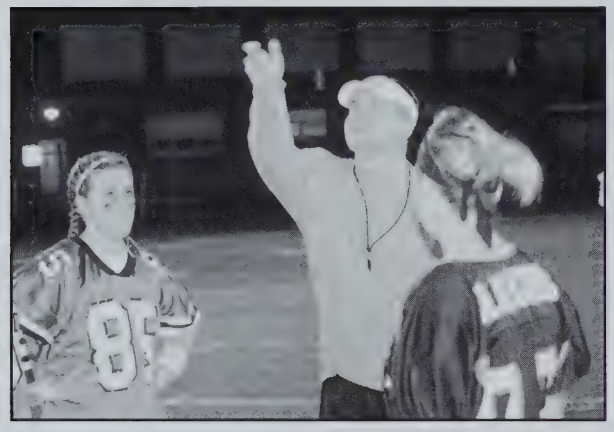
ALUMNI FIELD



HORNETS

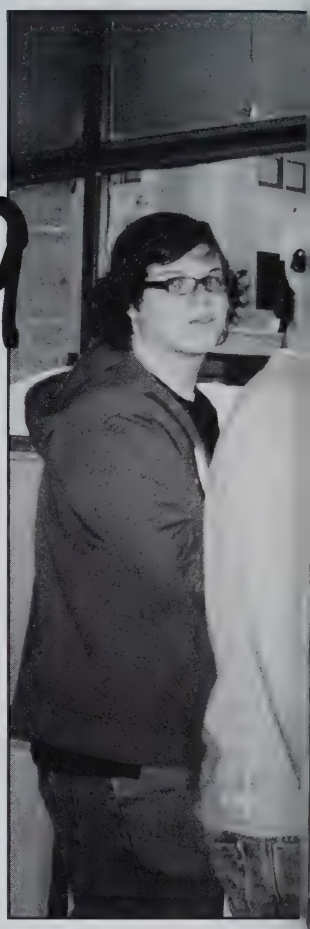
Powder Puff

For the first time this season, it was not the boys walking out onto the field but the junior and senior girls. Many hours of practice and preparation went into getting ready for the game. The senior and junior football players volunteered their time to coach the girls and the coaches ran the Powder Puff practices after finishing their own practices.

The junior girls were quick to score but their field goal attempt was denied by the senior defense. Leading the offense for the junior and senior girls were the hot hands of Meg Birnie and Caitlin Parker. Kerry Kiley and Jodi James ran the field for the junior touchdowns. Michaela Ross scored the only touchdown in the first half for the seniors. The senior offense tried for a two point conversion but was stopped by the junior defense.

Toward the end of the game, it seemed the juniors would be the ones walking off the field victorious. However, a touchdown run by Meghan Clapp was all the seniors needed to tie up the game. With the score tied at 12 senior Michelle Hernon booted the extra point through the uprights to seal the win for the seniors, ending the game with a score of 13-12. The juniors had a final opportunity to score but were stopped by the clock. A very physical game had both teams leaving the field enjoying the moment.

Window Painting



Each winter, Mansfield High School students are given the opportunity to show their holiday spirit and decorate the windows of local businesses. The students form teams of up to four people to work on a holiday window painting together.

Students painted various holiday scenes on the windows of businesses throughout the town. As you walk through town you could see pictures of ice-skaters and carolers. Some of the more impressive and creative paintings were a Kwanzaa tribute at the post office and snowmen ice-skating at Stop & Shop. The winners, Brett Dagenais, Asa Sinclair, and Andrew Beattie, painted a winter wonderland at the Mansfield Fire Department.

For the students this is a time to complete community service and have fun. The window painting benefits the Citizen Scholarship Foundation. The Citizen Scholarship Foundation provides scholarships to Mansfield High School Seniors to continue their education at the college level. The winter activity is a way for students to join together with their peers, spread holiday cheer, and help Mansfield's community.

Winter Semi-Formal

The 2007 Mardi Gras semi-formal attracted students of all grades. There was an overwhelming turnout for the second semi-formal dance in years. Five hundred and fifty Mansfield students filed through the lobby taking last minute pictures with their friends and admiring all of the formal apparel. The students then packed themselves into the school cafeteria for a night of fun and dancing with friends. The cafeteria was decorated entirely with a Mardi Gras theme including Bourbon Street signs, Mardi Gras masks, and beads for students.

The junior boys started the night off by being the first brave ones to get on the dance floor. After following the boys lead, the remainder of students joined in the dancing and rarely stopped once out there. The night continued with the temperature rising and students gulping water bottles. The cafeteria was packed with students ready to dance. Mr. Conti, the usual DJ, played an assortment of favorite songs by taking requests. The dance wrapped up at 11:00 with students tired and ready to head out.

Project Teammate

One popular course selection at Mansfield High School is Project Teammate. This class allows regular education high school students to be paired with a special needs student. Students assisted them in gym activities, community trips, and jobs within the cafeteria. A new addition to the course this year was joining them in academic and elective classes. The class allowed some students to travel to the middle and elementary school and expand their experience to working with different levels.

The purpose of Project Teammate is to prepare the special needs students with qualities they will need once they graduate. The class takes community trips many times throughout the week to familiarize the students with everyday tasks. Some common trips are to the grocery store, weight room and possible job opportunities. The staff provides the students with job, interviewing and people skills.

While in the school, the high school students assist the special needs students with making apple pies for a fall fundraiser. This year they also took a field trip to the Providence Place Mall and in the spring they will go bowling and participate in the Special Olympics.

DRAMA: Night watch

The Mansfield High School drama department depicted "Night Watch" by Lucille Fletcher. A dramatic suspense play set in New York following Elaine Wheeler a woman who sees a dead body in the building next door to her house. However, none of the other characters in the play believe she has actually seen the dead body. She is believed to be crazy and thought to be imagining things. Elaine's relationship with her husband John is in trouble to begin with and her visions can only make things worse.

Drama Teacher and Director Shelia Newton cast many actors that added to the suspense of the play. Brittany Robertson played Elaine Wheeler with Keith Pinault as her husband John. The tension between Elaine and John was portrayed by Brittany and John's emotions towards each other. Zach Bloom delivered a comedic performance as Curtis Appleby, with Heidi Moore playing Blanche Cooke, John's secret lover. The play wrapped up with the mystery unfolding and all being revealed.

Marching Band & Color Guard

At Mansfield High School the talent doesn't stop when the football players leave the field. Mansfield High's marching band and color guard are known for the half time shows they perform during football games. The band rallies fans during the games and pep rallies in the school with songs such as "Born To Be Wild", "Iron Man", and "September". For its field show in the fall, the marching and pep band performed James Bond. The color guard joins the band with its own performances during the football games. The marching band also participates in parades throughout the town including Memorial Day, Halloween, Veteran's Day, and the Homecoming Parade.

The winter color guard is working on its performance of "The River" for its competition show this season. The winter percussion ensemble is practicing "Echoes of Eternity" for its competition piece and will also be heading to the World Championships in Dayton, Ohio. The group will be the first associated with Mansfield High School to compete on a national and international level. Mansfield's marching band and color guard will be heading to Disney World this summer to march down Main Street. The entire group has been working very hard to perfect their performance for Main Street march.

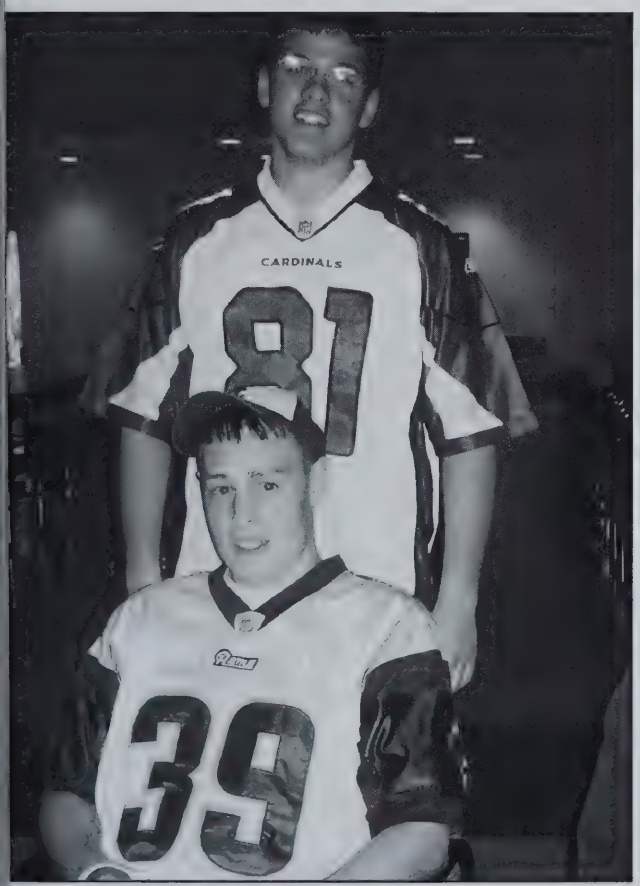
Madden tourney

The Madden 2007 Tournament Fundraiser for a Senior Matt McCue turned out to be a great success with almost thirty teams of students showing up to face off in the game of Madden.

Each of the thirty teams included two players, one playing offense and the other defense. The two day event raised close to $300 and all those participating in the event payed to play until they lost and t-shirt were sold as well. The tournament was organized by Mr. Modica and seniors Greg Martell and Jacob Holmes.

On the night of the finals, eight teams showed up in hopes they would become the first Mansfield High School Madden Champions. The games consisted of two minute quarters. After three and a half hours, football finally came to a close as an unlikely pair took home the final victory: Nate Levine and Mike Wakeland defeated, by merely a touchdown, the expected winners of Kevin Boyle and Dan Adie. The tournament was a success in helping raise money for Matt and serves as a testament to what can happen when students are empowered to support a fellow classmate.



Ski CIUb

While the rest of us are sleeping at 5 in the morning, a group of highschool students are loading onto a coach bus that will head north. Student skiiers come equipped with the necessary items; I-Pods, pillows, food, and of course their ski and snowboard gear. Sleepy faces are greeted by Mr. Frias, ski club adviser. The rides up to the mountain are mostly spent sleeping or watching movies, such, "Out Cold."

This year, members of the ski club got what is called the, "Threedom Pass." This pass grants access to three mountains; Loon, Cranmore, and Waterville. The Ski Club is led by president Arielle Bluestein, Vice President Larry Owen, and Treasurer PJ POwers. Members range from first-timers to more experienced skiiers and snowboarders. Ski club is perfect for those who want to learn something new, as well as those who want to better skills that they are already working on. Despite the unusually warm temperatures this winter, members continued to travel up to the slopes and have a good time.

"I had never skiied before, so I joined the ski club to learn how and I love it. It's fun." -Colleen Davis

"The guys are always trying new tricks and getting bruises and cuts." -Arielle Bluestein

National Honor Society

In 1921, the National Honor Society was formed as a result of a growing need for a national organization whose objectives were as follows: "to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in the nation's secondary schools." Students become candidates for the Mansfield High School NHS in their junior and senior years with an unweighted cumulative GP A of 88 or higher. Selection as a member of the Mansfield NHS is an honor and privilege. More than an honor roll, the NHS also evaluates students on the components of leadership, service, and character.

The NHS is led by President Melanie Bowdish, Vice President Bridget Martin, Secretary Lauren Desmond, and Treasurer Timothy Mahoney. The Honor Society has helped the community in various events including Science Night, Math Night, the Mansfield Food Pantry Walk, Secret Santa at the Jordan/Jackson Elementary School, tutoring and the Talking News. Once inducted as a member, the students are expected to maintain the standards by which they were selected. Honor students observe the four credentials: scholarship, leadership, character, and service, as a part of their daily routines,

"I liked participating in the family day in Foxboro, it was fun to see the kids have a good time playing the games." Brett Goverman

"My favorite activity was helping out at Secret Santa. It was fun to help out the little kids pick out presents for their family." Melanie Bowdish

the Robotics Team

The Mansfield High School Robotics team has grown since its first year in 2000. Now in its seventh year, the team consists of twenty four members. Robotics adviser Mr. Carver-Brown is impressed with the increased interest from girls this year. There are six females on the team this year, whereas in the past the team had few to none. The club is headed by President Daniel Gracia and Vice President Alex Proal. This year especially, noted Mr. Carver-Brown, members have reached out to help eachother learn and develop. They offer eachother great advice and remain involved in all aspects of the club.

The purpose of the club is to build a robot that they will enter in a competition against other schools. The team has six weeks to build their robot and their final product is presented at a big competition at Boston University. Of their progress this year, Mr. Carver-Brown was pleased to announce that the team was a week and a half ahead of schedule for the contest. Their dedication and work ethic have had everything to do with their progress, considering that students are already working at 2 o'clock afterschool, and meetings do not begin until 4.

Students join the Robotics Club for many reasons. "It's a great way to gain experience in the fields of engineering and business. At the competitions, we have to form alliances with other teams. It helps better your skills in those areas," added Dan Gracia. Over the seven years that the Robotics Team has entered competitions, they have made the finals three times. The team's ultimate goal is to increase financial support from private industry, which would allow them to participate in more competitions per year.

"It is a nice way to get to know people, and it is fun. You get to do a lot of stuff that most kids don't normally get to do."
Brian Rezendes

"I joined the club because I love building things and I want to become an engineer in the future."
Daniel Gracia

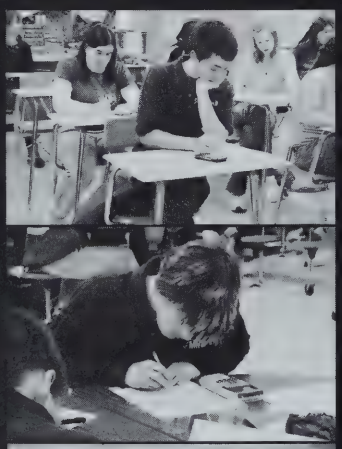
european travel club

In the summer of 2006, the students in the European Travel Club traveled across the Atlantic Ocean into a completely different environment. With the advisers Mr.McGovern and Mr.Fisher students flew out of Boston to Frankfort, Germany. In just ten days, their tour guide led them across Europe, from Germany, to Paris. In Munich they spent two nights visting the Olympic Needle and Daucau. Visiting Daucau, a Nazi prison camp, was a moving experience they will never forget. On their way to Switzerland, they visited the Neuschwanstein castle in Munich, which the Disney castle was adapted from. In Switzerland, they took two gondola rides to reach the top of Mt.Titlis, which peaks at 10,000ft. The adventurous and daring students of MHS enjoyed sledding and uni-skiing down the mountain. They used the TGV that whisked them at speeds of 186mph to get to their final destination, Paris. In Paris, they spent three nights visiting the Eiffel Tower, Versailles, and the Lourve. The trip to Europe was a ground-breaking experience that they will never forget.

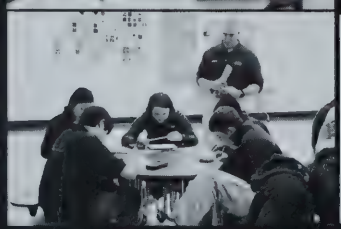
"The European Travel club is a great way to travel and experience the world with friends"
Lauren Brais

"It provided a great learning experience with great advisors."
Colleen Kelley

math team



The Mansfield Math Team students have been solving their way through countless problems to reach the highest level of achievement Mansfield High School has ever seen. The Math team is a club where students develop mathematical skills by practicing math. The Math team does not just solve challenging problems; they compete against schools from across the state and nation. This year the math team has been outstandingly successful in leagues such has the New England Mathematics League (NEML) and AMSA. The team has worked hard and landed the 23rd spot out of 164 schools in the AMSA. To help prepare for the big competitions, the students study topics such as factoring, permeations, and logarithms. Many students use this club as a place where they can use their talent and meet new friends. Students also join the team because it gives them an upper hand on the mathematical sections of standardized tests. With Kelly Pace and Lucy Li as Captains, the team will be led to victory and will crush the competition and win states. Mrs. Kallinowski and Mr. Mitchell, club advisers, will help the team succeed in every competition they compete in.



"Math team is a way we can put our math skills to use, the meets are exciting, its always fun to win"- Lucy Li

"Working out the problems was difficult, but it was a learning experience"- Alison Ballantyne

Student Council

For the first time in years, The Winter Formal Semi dance has been a success, and this was all made possible by none other than student council. This year, STUCO has planned and been apart of many activities. The club was led by President Danielle Amaral, Vice President Heather McPherson, Secretary Michaela Ross and treasurer Charese Zimmer. The advisors, Mrs. Redding and Ms.Longer made this year the most successful in ages. This fall, the club went to an informational leadership council group field trip planned by SEMASC. This trip helped the students learn more about themselves and each other. The group also raked leaves around Mansfield for the elderly and went on the television show called "Totally Patriots". During this show, the students were able to ask Gostkowski, the Patriots kicker, any questions they might have for him. For the first time in years, the winter formal sold 530 tickets, filling up the entire cafeteria. Other activities that STUCO has been proud to have been a part of organizing are, homecoming, pep rallies, spirit week, the giving box, the blood drive, and teacher appreciation day. This year's STUCO has brought life to the school and has encouraged everyone to show their school spirit.

"Our advisers made this year fun and possible. Without them we would not have able to do so many activities."- Michaela Ross

"Totally patriots was a great experience where we could learn to be on camera, and actually get to meet a real patriots player."- Jane Bittner

BASEBALL

Hockomock League titles have been hard to come by for Mansfield High School baseball throughout the history of the program. However, that was not the case for the 2006 Hornets, who accomplished a feat only one other team had done before them. Senior captains Sean Herrick and Matt Birnie helped to lead the Hornets to a 13-7 record and a share of the Hockomock League crown.

At the beginning of the season, this junior-heavy squad was looking to sneak up on perennial Hockomock League favorites, Franklin, Foxboro, and North Attleboro. In order to do so, the Hornets relied on 1-3 hitters Anthony Pignone, Anthony Chiarolanza, and Ben Blaisdell to set the table for the Hornets by reaching base in the early stages of the game. Matt Birnie and Eddie O'Brien combined for seven homeruns and fifteen extra base hits to provide power to the lineup.

Over the course of the season, pitching and defense were the keys to success for the team. Leading the force was Sean Herrick and his 1.72 ERA, which would not have been possible if not for the stellar play of Ryan Murphy behind the plate. Murphy blocked balls left and right all season long and threw out anyone that dared to try and steal a base. Anthony Chiarolanza, Pat Keogh, Joe McKenna, and Mark Gentili were also key contributors to the Hornets pitching staff, winning a combined ten games and earning one save. The strong infield, which consisted of Eric Depo, Ben Blaisdell, Joe Hunt, and Anthony Chiarolanza, was rock solid, while the outfield got the job done with Matt Birnie, John Ford, and Eddie O'Brien.

After earning a first round bye in the MIAA state tournament, the Hornets were upset by a tough Brockton Boxers line-up to end the Cinderella season. Even though the 2006 season ended prematurely, the team was still proud of their accomplishments and looks to run the table in 2007. The 2007 Mansfield Hornets will return thirteen players including veteran talent in Matt Alksninis and Larry Pizzi, and young talented Mark Gilson and Robbie MacDonald.

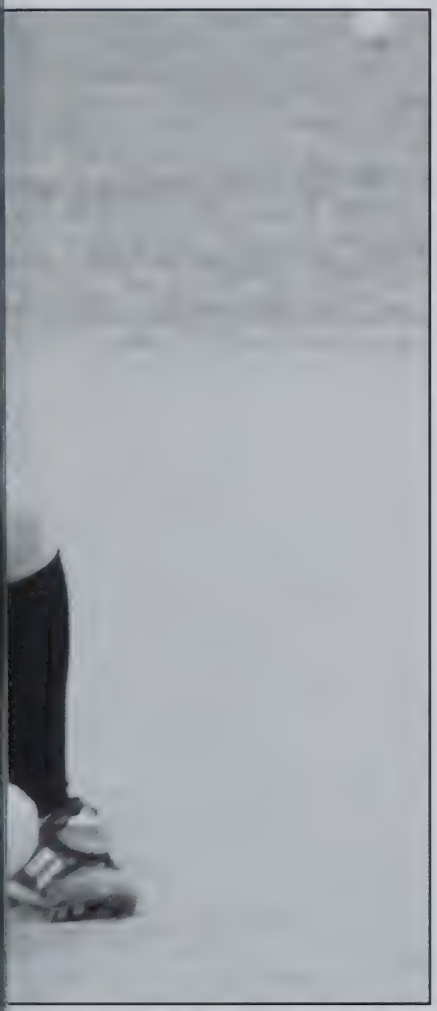
SOFTBALL



The 2006 Mansfield Girls Softball team exceeded all expectations and danced their way to a Hockomock League championship with an astounding 19-3 record. They stunned all, while bringing home the best record in school history. They were led by senior quad-captains Katie Higgins, Erin Higgins, Emily Stearns and Stephanie Bice.

The batting averages of this softball team established league honors. The reliable bats of Erin Higgins, Heather McPherson and Meghan Birnie paved the way for the power hitters Liz Moore and Emily Stearns. Rounding out the order were solid hitters Charese Zimmer, Katie Higgins, Kaitlyn Kennedy and Samantha Bourque.

The stable infield of Katie Higgins, Heather McPherson, Meg Birnie and Erin Higgins rarely committed errors. The dependable outfield of Kaitlyn Kennedy, Charese Zimmer and Samantha Bourque continuously made the necessary plays and adjustments to make playing in the outfield look like a walk in the park.

Battery mates Emily Stearns behind the plate and Stephanie Bice on the mound were the backbone of this outstanding squad. Emily Stearns rarely allowed a passed ball and dared any runner to advance a base on her watch. Hockomock All-Star Stephanie Bice boasted an ERA of under one, making her one of the top hurlers in the state.

The 2007 tri-captains Taylor Young, Heather McPherson and Caitlin Parker look to match, if not surpass, the success of the 2006 record, and win another league title.

BOYS LACROSSE

The Mansfield boy's lacrosse team has shown steady progress throughout the past few years, and it was no different in the 2006 season. The top three scorers in the Hockomock League were Matt Kiley, Connor Hayes and Michael Morrill. They helped lead the team to a 14-3 record, the best in the Hornets' short history. Senior captains Arlie Shaw and Mike Feck provided the young team with the necessary leadership to make a strong showing in the MIAA tournament. Along with Shaw and Feck, seniors Matt Egan and Chris Mansour were fixtures in the lineup day in and day out. That gave the team a lift when they were in need, and helped to make it the best in Mansfield Lacrosse history.

Junior Patrick Powers also proved to be one of the more athletic players on the team with a strong show of character. Patrick Powers along with fellow juniors Eddie Curtin, Tommy Dean, and Paul Nunes worked together to help Connor Hayes, Matt Kiley, and Michael Morrill pace the offense. This offense completely outmatched all opponents in the league with their continuous attack.

Equally contributing to the team's success was the strong core of defenseman on the team. Led by future captain and junior Andrew Sullivan, the defense helped to hold down the fort in front of sophomore goaltender Andrew Bourget. Other contributors on the defensive front were seniors Matt Egan and Arlie Shaw along with sophomore Dan Pennellatore.

Coach Juelis has helped to turn the lacrosse team here at Mansfield into a force to be reckoned with in the Hockomock League. In just a short time, the team has gone from a below .500 record, to an almost perfect season in 2006. In the coming years we expect to see amazing things from a team who has so greatly evolved. This experienced team will continue to be the team to beat in the Hockomock League.

GIRLS LACROSSE

The 2006 Girls Lacrosse team exceeded all expectations and finished the season with a 9-9-1 record. With a core group of ten seniors, this team trained by Coach Muller and Coach Allen, was one of the hardest working groups that Mansfield Girl's Lacrosse has seen in many years. Captains Hillary Turner, Rita Todd, and Kelly Gilbertson all received honors as Hockomock League All Stars in the 2006 season. The trio helped to guide the team on and off the field, leading by example in both the academic and athletic aspects of High School.

The strong leadership of ten seniors, including Kristen Schow, Rita Todd, Monica DeGiorgio, Hilary Turner, Alexis Kobey, Kelly Gilbertson, Kaitlin Gaegan, Jessica Clapp, Shari O'Connell, and Ashley Noonan all provided a source of leadership. Juniors Kelsey Anderson and Jill Hallgren helped to pace the offense of this determined group. Also helping to lead the offense were Kelly Gilbertson, Samantha Doucette, Alexis Kobey, and Bryanna Hayes. Protecting goalie Rita Todd were defensemen Hillary Turner, Jess Clapp, Ashley Noonan, and Kailee Moore. Although never receieving recognition for their efforts, this unwavering group of girls was one reason this lacrosse team was able to accomplish as much as they did. Hock All Star goalie, Rita Todd, kept the Hornets in every single game. There was never a doubt as to how solid Rita would be, game in and game out.

Although a large group graduated from the team in 2006, hopes are still high for the 2007 team. It may be hard to replace some of the key positional players, but the promising underclassmen hope to contribute to future success. Captains Jill Hallgren and Kelsey Anderson look to guide the team to the Hockomock League Title, which they are so capable of.

BOYS TENNIS

Coach Peter Larson looked to rebound from a deceiving 7-13 record in the 2005 season by finishing strong with a talented team in 2006. Junior captain Brett Goverman led the team throughout the season. With an outstanding record of 14-6, he achieved Hock All-Star and Sun Chronicle All-Star status, and was named team MVP. The young, elite Goverman accomplished the rare feat of being elected captain as a junior, and will continue to lead the team as a senior.

Despite their losing record, the team matched up well against all opponents and battled hard the entire year. Senior Adam Carlson showed determination by stepping up and winning some key decisive matches. Rewarded for his hard work and excellent results, Carlson received the Coach's Award at the conclusion of the 2006 season. Martin Zaharinov approached each match with the right focus and mentality, which helped to lift the spirit of the team. Along with Goverman, Will Condon also finished the season with a winning record of 10-9.

With only two seniors on the team, Coach Larson looked to young talent for help at the varsity level. Mark Capitanio and Brett Dagenais saw their first varsity experience as junior doubles players, and gave their foes a taste of what is to come in the future. Although young and unproven, the players now will bring more experience and composure to help the team edge closer to becoming a top contender in the future Hockomock League.

GIRLS TENNIS

Some teams strive for a winning record, but the 2006 Girl's Tennis team aimed to be the best. Finishing with a 17-5 record and a second place finish in the Hockomock League, this group battled in each of its contests throughout the course of the season. One accomplishment of the team, was its victory over Canton, a 19-1 state powerhouse.

Captains Jaclyn Eastman and Bethanie Nelson provided great leadership for the team both on and off the courts. Number one singles player Sara Yeransian led the team with an 18-1 record and was also voted as team MVP and member of the Hockomock League All Star Team. Close behind was number 2 singles player Lauren Desmond, who finished the season with a 12-7 record. Lauren's play proved to be crucial in the late stages of many matches, helping the team to come out on top in a number of clutch situations. Also assisting the Hornet's was Senior Captain and third singles player Jaclyn Eastman, who completed the season with a 17-2 record. Jaclyn was the recipient of the Team Player's Choice Award for her modest contributions to the team.

First team doubles players, Eban Lewis and Amanda Wolfe, stuck together all year completing the season with a 11-8 record. The second double's group consisted of Arielle Bluestein, Colleen Kelley and Michelle Hernon. Although it was not easy to constantly change partners, these three did their best, no matter who they were paired with.

After suffering a crushing loss in the South Sectionals to a State Champion team in Needham, the 2007 Hornet platoon looks for a chance to avenge their loss. Captains Eban Lewis and Lauren Desmond look to provide the same leadership which the team has had in the past, and to lead the Hornets to a Hockomock league title.

BOYS TRACK

The 2006 Boys Spring track team captured the Hockomock Title for MHS. It was as if there was a Hock All-Star or a winning competitor in every event for the Hornets. From shot-put, long distance, and sprinting, the Hornets excelled in all facets. Coach Julie Collins helped guide the great success of this team.

In long distance racing, Ryan Collins, Daniel Cequira, Jason O'Connell, Kevin Meagher, John Lutkevich, Brendan Barca, and Michael Bolea all helped to bring home multiple wins at every meet. This core group of long distance racers are great athletes who simply enjoy running.

In hurdles, Matt Callanan and Joe Choiniere were main components in helping the team. A key missing hurdler was Peter Conti, who missed the entire season due to injury. Powell Simpson, Brent Lincoln, Steve Kourtelidis, and Nathan Maxwell were the major 2006 sprinters. These four not only excelled in the individual races, but also as one of the best 4 x 100 teams in the entire state.

Great performers in the long jump were Powell Simpson, Justin Benjaminson, and Joseph Choiniere. In the triple jump the Hornets used Justin Benjaminson and Thomas Gilson to benefit the team substantially. Arguably one of the best in the Hockomock League in his events, Powell Simpson competed in the high jump for the Hornet's and virtually destroyed all opponents.

Last but not least is the shot-put, for which we had standout freshman Daniel Glavine who was one of the best in the state for his age group. Also, Junior Greg Martel and Senior Keith Tillman featured in helping the Hornets capture victories in both the discus and the shot-put.

The Boy's Spring Track Team will look to build on their past success again in 2007 with almost all of their key components returning. Most can expect this team to become a record breaking squad, and one of the best Mansfield will ever see.

GIRLS TRACK

The Girls Track team was nothing short of spectacular as usual in the 2006 season. The team maintained its elite status by blowing out its typical Hockomock opponents with an 8-0 record. The girls not only consisted of great leadership with captains Hillary Crook, Jess Allen, Melissa Murphy, and Brianna Sionne, but they were also made up of potential upcoming stars that helped to contribute to the team's sterling reputation.

Many talented seniors played large roles in the team's success to four straight Hockomock League championships throughout their high school career. This group included Courtney Lincoln, Kelly Regan, and Hillary Steinhoff. Courtney Lincoln holds nine school records throughout the course of her four years. She gained over 100 points to contribute to many of the girls' victories. Regan was the best javelin thrower in the Hockomock League, and Hillary Steinhoff proved to be a solid sprinter, and a great asset for the Hornets.

The 4 x 400 team were the bread and butter for the Hornets all season long. It consisted of steady runner Lauren Brown, long-distance star Katie Meagher, upcoming captain Meghan Clapp, and team anchor Melissa Murphy. They are the current holders of the school record for the event with a time of 4:09

The 2007 team looks to continue the dynasty set by previous teams. Captains Meghan Clapp, Kate Johnston, Jane Bitner, and Julia Bantimba will lead the girls track team, along with contributors such as Meghan Ferriera, Alyssa Fernandez, and Jodi James.

FOOTBALL

All good things eventually have to come to an end, and in the case of the 2006 Mansfield High School Football team, the end was a bit premature. The Thanksgiving Day upset by rival Foxboro cannot take away from the success that the Hornets have achieved over the last three years. Leading the charge were senior captains Eric DiPietrantonio, PJ Powers, Tom Gilson, and Andrew Sullivan, who provided the leadership that every good team needs. Tom Gilson, a wide receiver, was arguably the most feared receiver in the Hockomock League, accumulating over 600 yards receiving on passes from his brother, junior phenom Mark Gilson. The Hornets were not a one-dimensional offense however, as running backs DiPietrantonio, Powers, and Mike Morrill combined for over 1700 yards on the ground behind the offensive line which consisted of senior Andrew Sullivan and Greg Martell along with juniors Will Gasson, Mike McPherson, and Andrew Bourget.

Along with the high powered offense that scored over thirty points per game, the Hornets had a tough defense which only allowed an average of one touchdown per game. The heart and soul of the defense was AJ Conlon, Don Currivan Trophy winner for being MVP of the Thanksgiving Day game, and the ferocious Ryan Murphy, both playing middle linebacker. In front of them was a defensive line, with Chris Ingolia, Jeff Cataloni, Matt Handley, and the highly Corey Eason, which was constantly putting pressure on the opposing quarterback and helping to stop the run. While these players were constantly stopping the run, there was also the secondary which was as good as any in the Hockomock League. Matt Alksninis led the team and entire league in interceptions with five, while Joe Murphy and David Westhaver were getting picks of their own and defending numerous passes.

While the season did not end on a note that the team had dreamt about so many times, this group will still be considered one of the best to play at Mansfield High School, posting a 31-2 record over their three years with Coach Redding, while winning the league title every year. With a strong JV and freshmen program, the Hornets will look to continue their dynasty and capture an unprecedented fifth straight Hockomock League championship in 2007. Captains Mark Gilson, Mike Abany, Will Gasson, and David Westhaver will lead the team in '07, as Coach Redding hopes to make his twentieth season one that will be remembered for years to come.

FIELD HOCKEY

Field hockey has been an up and coming sport at Mansfield over the past few years and the team continues to get better and better each year. Behind Coach D, the team finished with a record of 13-6-1 and second in the Hockomock League. The only team better was the eventual state champion Canton. Captains Heather McPherson, Taylor Young, and Caitlin Parker were constantly on the field putting pressure on the opposition. Taylor Young led the team in goals and was also a Hockomock League All-Star for the Hornets along with Charese Zimmer. Zimmer played with heart, always going all out and hustling. Sophomore Adrienne Breef-Pilz had a solid year as the goal keeper with Heather McPherson, showing her usual intensity that she shows in all sports, on defense. Erin Carroll, Caitlin Parker, Jenna Introini, and Kaitlyn Kennedy were all big contributors to the team with their hustle and winning mentality. Courtney Gilmore, Michaela Ross and Kate Johnston battled all year long and helped to bring a positive attitude to the team.

The leadership of the ten seniors was good for the underclassmen, who will be solid in the years to come. Captains Meghan Chadwick, Sam DeAndrade, and Colleen Tully will lead the team in the 2007 season and they will also be looking for leadership out of players such as Colleen Davis, Lauren Healey, and Kim McCarter.

BOYS SOCCER

It was not a question of whether or not the 2006 Boys Soccer team would have success, but rather how much success would they have. The team, led by Coach Giannouloueis, answered that question by posting a 15-4-1 record, a good enough mark to claim the Hockomock League title. The squad followed up this record with a 6-0 tournament victory over New Bedford Vocational, before being upset in a closely contested 1-0 match against Catholic Memorial.

In order to reach this point, the team was led by senior captains Michael Buehler, Peter Conti, and Eddie Curtin. Hockomock and Eastern Mass All-Star Michael Buehler served as the team's sweeper, Hockomock all-star Peter Conti as the right defender, and Curtin as the stopper. Not only did the three teammates make large contributions on the field, but they demonstrated the proper leadership off the field as well. Other key senior contributors included Mark Capitanio, Todd Greene, Andrew Beattie, John Fullerton, and Michael Daley. Daley led the team in goals scored, and was also elected as a Hockomock League All-Star. Tim Mahoney, Josh Garland, Joe Choiniere, and Mike Giordano also were big parts in the team's success.

Robbie MacDonald and Ryan Chambers headed a long list of key underclassmen. MacDonald was the starting goalkeeper, and set the team record for most shutouts in Mansfield history. He was also awarded the title of Hockomock All-Star. Chambers became the team's second leading goal scorer leading to many Hornet victories. Evan Grimes, Jeff Ivas, Giscard Sarkis, Tommy Giannouloueis, and Mike Piccirilli also were assets to the team's success.

As compensation for their great seasons, award recipients included John Fullerton with the Hustle award, Brycen Dowd with the Team Player award, Michael Buehler with the Defensive award, and Michael Daley with the Offensive award. The squad hopes to continue its success with 2007 captains Ryan Chambers, Jeff Ivas, and Robbie MacDonald. The finish of the season may not have gone according to plan, but the 2006 season will be remembered in history for its success.

GIRLS SOCCER

The 2006 Girls soccer team had another exciting and successful season. The team was filled with the right players who acquired talent, heart, and determination - all key factors in winning. The girls proved this by tying the best Hockomock League record in school history at 8-4-4. They also took home the 2006 Hockomock League Sportsmanship award, which is voted by all the coaches in the league. The team was lead by senior captains Brook Mackenzie, Jill Johnson, and Kristen Sankey. They finished a great regular season and earned the opportunity to compete in the playoff tournament where they lost their opening round game in a shootout 2-1 to a very solid Scituate team.

The team had many contributions from various players which proved to be the key to the Hornets success this season. Elizabeth Moore and Jackie McPherson were the dominating goalies of the league together averaged five shutouts. Allison Nagle and Kristen Sankey provided great defense while Brook Mackenzie had an outstanding team leading 13 goals. Michelle Hernon, Jill Johnson, and Jessica McNeil all dished out steady contributions all season. Young standouts Kerry Kiley, Lauren Skelly and Meghan Ferreira brought a lot of talent and knowledge to the team. Brook Mackenzie, Jill Johnson, and Allison Nagle were selected to the All Hockomock team. Brooke also got elected for Sun chronicle, Brockton enterprise, Eastern Mass all-star and all state. Jess McNeil, Allison Nagle, and Jill Johnson we all elected so Sun Chronicle team.

BOYS X-COUNTRY

A dynasty in sports is something that rarely comes along. It takes some of the greatest athletes coming together to make up a team, a coach that is devoted and an exceptional leader. The Mansfield High School boys cross country team easily fit into this definition of a dynasty. For the past four years, they have yet to lose a meet and in the 2006 season, they captured their fourth straight Hockomock League title and also captured the EMASS Division II title.

Ryan Collins and Brendan Barca were the captains for the 8-0 team led by Coach Collins. Running hard all year, Collins and Barca along with seniors John Lutkevich, Brett Goverman, and Ian Falcone helped to lead the team through tough meets. The team also looked for underclassmen to come up big when the team needed it. Mike Bolea, Jake Doyle and Andrew Erwin were solid runners all year and worked hard to help bring home the state title.

It was tough for anyone to match the achievements of Ryan Collins. He not only brought home the division II individual title, but also the All-State title. Collins was the Boston Globe and Boston Herald runner of the year, while winning Hockomock League, Brockton Enterprise and Sun Chronicle All- Star status. Collins had a once in a lifetime opportunity to compete at the national level. He finished in 17th place in the 28th annual Foot Locker National Cross-Country Championships held in San Diego, CA. Ryan was just 16 runners and 32 seconds off the winning time from winning the National Championship. Those will be tough running shoes to fill.

Other runners that were recognized were Hockomock and Sun Chronicle all-stars John Lutkevich and Andrew Erwin, and Hockomock all-star Mike Bolea. As the captains in 2007, Bolea and Erwin will try to continue the tradition of greatness for the Hornets in cross country and hopefully win their 5th straight Hockomock title.

GIRLS X-COUNTRY

Coach Ellis led the Mansfield High School Girls Cross-Country team to a 6-2 record in his first year as head coach. The team fought hard in every meet all season and they were feared by everyone in the Hockomock League. The two meets that the team failed to win were both lost by very small margins. Althought they did not reach the goal of going through the season undefeated, the team had nothing to hang their heads about, as they are still one of the elite cross-country programs in the state.

Leading the way were senior captains Alison Goffredo and Arielle Bluestein and senior Lauren Desmond providing great leadership and showing the underclassmen great work ethic. Sophomore Jess Morse was the number one runner for the Hornets, winning the majority of her races throughout the year. Along with her were Elaina Dominessey, Kate Bailey, Kacy Gillis, and Kathleen Ezersky who all were huge contributors to the team and were in the top eight for every meet.

Even though the team did not have the season they wanted in terms of winning a championship, they showed that they will continue to be a team for fear in the next few years. All of their top runners were underclassmen and the team could be a contender for a state title in the next two or three years to come. They hope to push toward the title in 2007 behind captains Kathleen Ezersky, Elaina Dominessey and Kacy Gillis.

GOLF

The 2006 golf team was one that went down in the history books of Mansfield High School. The team's 17-0 record was the best ever for a golf team from Mansfield and was the first undefeated season ever for the program. Senior captains Ben Grant and Connor Hayes were strong for the team all year, both consistantly shooting in the thirties, along with senior Nick Trombetta who was strong for the team all year. Junior standout Grant Certuse was as good as they come in the Hockomock League, also keeping his scores in the thirties more often than not. With these four golfers the team knew before the season even started that they were going to be a contender.

Brendan Cruise

It wasn't just the upperclassmen who were playing good golf however, sophomores Bobby Fluckinger and Evan Sohn were in the starting lineup match to match. Coach Kelly had his golfers out on the course every day having the young athletes working hard in order to bring out the best in each of their games. The hard work in the preseason when the team was in Vermont and the in season practices paid off when the team defeated powerhouse Foxboro twice in the season, and cpatured their first ever Hockomock League title.

Hockomock League and Sun Chronicle All-Star Ben Grant just missed winning the league MVP title, but he still had a season full of other individual success. He set the school record shooting a 3-under par 33 in a match during the year, breaking his own school record of 1-under par 35 last season. The record could be short lived however because 2007 captain Grant Certuse will be leading the team and should be playing the best golf of his life. Along with the other 2007 captain Brendan Cruise, the team hopes to go undefeated again, and make an impact in the state tournament.

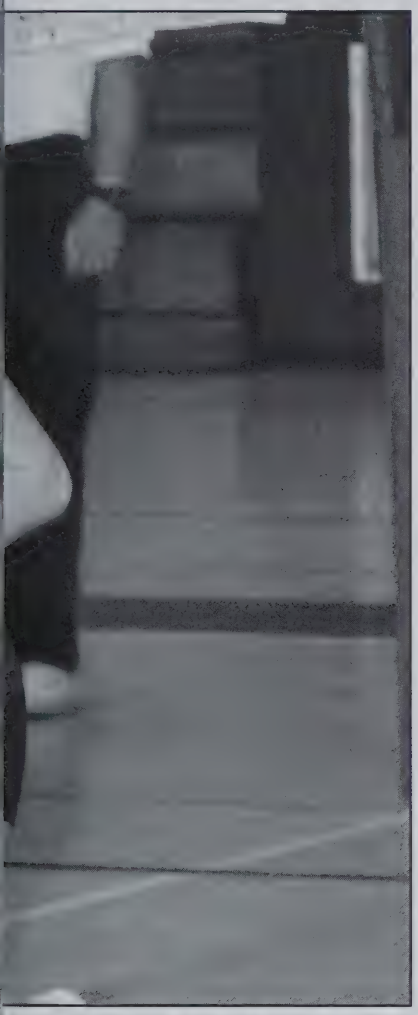
VOLLEYBALL



Great teams are not always the ones that come away with the victory every time they go into battle. That was the story of the 2006 Mansfield High School girls volleyball team. Despite missing the tournament, the team was much better than their record showed, and more importantly, were leaders in their community. Coach Finn along with captains Eban Lewis and Jill MacKinnon led this team of great young women who should be admired throughout the school. They left everything that they had out on the floor every time they stepped onto the court which is a trait that teams respected.

Erin Beaven was a very consistent player for the team and was honored in the Hockomock league for her play. Players like Amanda Willette and Bridget Southworth were digging, setting, and spiking all year long as the Hornets were battling their opposition. Sarah Caughey, Molly Jewkes, and Jodi James were solid all year and showed that the next couple years should be good ones for the volleyball team.

The volleyball teams looks to improve on their 2006 season in 2007 and will look to be led by Katherine Harper, Alison Ballantyne, and the other seniors to be. Hopefully the team will make the tournament and continue to be leaders in the community as well next season.

CHEERLEADING

The 2006 fall cheerleading squad could be heard throughout Alumni Field for every football game. Captains Katie Donahue and Britney Bolin led the cheerleaders to a great season. New coach Kristen Modlowski brought new ideas and served as an excellent influence for the team. The team also had young talent as proven by the selection of Myrna Lincoln as an all-star along with Britney Bolin in the attendance of camp. The team showed great spirit, and worked hard in practice throughout the year to improve. To show their great spirits, they even provided treats for the senior football players following every game. They went above and beyond to decorate houses and cars for the Thanksgiving day game to show their level of dedication.

The 2006-07 winter cheerleading team was also led by captain Katie Donahue along with captain Brittany Cataloni. The squad always provided noise and enthusiasm for the exciting basketball games. The cheerleaders came out on the floor during every half time and time out to keep the level of intensity and excitement extremely high. The team traveled to some of the boys basketball away games to support the team, not only providing noise for the boys, but bringing the same kind of energy to the girls games as well. Another key senior contributor was Rebecca Rose who participated in both fall and winter cheerleading. The team stayed together throughout the entire season in order to overcome the many obstacles that they faced.

2007 Boys Basketball Team

BOYS BASKETBALL

The Mansfield Basketball team always made the games interesting. The overall record of 8-12 does no justice for the heart and determination this team showed, never giving up even when the odds were against them. The highly stacked athletic team lost two overtime games, two buzzer beaters, and many two to three point games. If the ball happened to bounce a different way in some of those games the whole season would have been different and would have showed everyone that this team was something special. Although the team had a better record than the last few years, the team was still disappointed coming up short of their goal of making the tournament. The team was undersized coming into the year but they were one of the most athletic teams in the state.

The team was led by senior captains Matthew Alksninis, Joseph Murphy, and Thomas Gilson who proved to be the real leaders of the team. The three showed the real meaning of the quote "Never falter, never quit." Senior Matthew Handley was one of the bigger guys on the team; although he only stands at 6'3, he played like he was 7'2 tearing down every rebound. Thomas Gilson, Joseph Murphy, Matthew Alksninis displayed their talents by their amazing athleticism and there ability to make great plays. Senior Tim Mahoney was a solid all-around player who contributed to the Hornets offensively and defensively. Freshman Rodney Chance and junior Drew Venter showed strengths in both handling the ball and driving to the basket for a quick two. Junior Jimmy McGrath earned his roll as the Hornets "shooter" nailing big shots and hitting threes like it was his job. Sophomores Andrew and Shawn Kelly demonstrated they have the ability to lead the team to success in the future. The Hornets, despite their record, were the classiest group of kids a coach could hope for.

GIRLS BASKETBALL

The senior girls of the 2007 girl's basketball team capped off their careers in style. After going deep into the south sectional tournament in their first three years, the girls qualified for the tournament again in 2007, but this time going a leg up on the team of previous years. The girls fought hard as an 11 seed in the tournament, and rode their "Cinderella" persona all the way to the South Sections Finals.

Contributions came from all levels during the season, from seniors right down to freshmen. From the seniors, Jill Johnson and Heather McPherson were number one and two on the team in scoring, respectively, both averaging over ten points per game. On the other end of the floor, Charese Zimmer and Kaitlyn Kennedy played lock down defense all season and came up huge with clutch shots throughout the season. Junior Rachel Drummey was a force on the low post, finishing the regular season, second to only Johnson, with nearly 150 rebounds, and she also blocked 22 shots. The surprise of the season came from freshman Jess Eason, who played in all twenty games for the Hornets and brought down 125 rebound of her own along with 19 blocks.

After big wins in the state tournament over out of league rival Walpole, league and arch rival Foxboro, and an upset over Hopkinton, the Hornets unfortunately fell to the 23-1 Shamrocks of Bishop Feehan. Although being crowned South Sectional champions would have been the ideal way to end the season, there was plenty of excitement in the playoffs. The girls drew record crowds for Mansfield Basketball and gave the fans a show, especially against Holliston. The girls final victory led to the fans storming the court to celebrate with the players which was unforgetable for all involved.

Although the Hornets lose a lot of production from the seniors, the 2007-2008 squad brings back the likes of Drummey and Eason, along with players such as Jenn Call, Jess Pizzi, Sam Doucette and Meredith Maroney all looking to continue the tradition of success for girls basketball under the leadership of Coach Redding.

ICE HOCKEY

The Mansfield High School Hockey team finished the season with a 10-9-2 record a far cry from their 3-14-2 record of the previous season. The Hornets clinched an 11th seed in the Division 2 South Tournament and lost to 6th seed Martha 's Vineyard by a score of 3-1. The Hornets were led by first team Hockomock League All Star Eddie O'Brien and second team All Stars Brendan Carroll and Ryan Kershaw. Ryan continued his excellent high school hockey career with another solid season between the pipes for the Hornets. O'Brien finished finished the season with 18 goals and 19 assists and Carroll was not far behind with 18 goals and 18 assists..

Other strong performers for the Hornets on forward were Freshman Don Washburn, Sophomore Shane Harrington, Senior Bill Rogazzo, and Juniors Will Gasson, Mike Antonelli, Jon Diflamines and Drew Rumbel. These forwards came every day with a desire to win and helped to improve upon last year's record. The defense was led by Senior Pat Keogh, Juniors John Harrington and Taylor Mattus, along with freshman Greg O'Brien, David Roche and Michael Oser. Also making strong contributions from the point were Lucas Bracken and Andrew Whittaker. Backup goalie Brendan Cook was another integral part of the team, ready to go at all times. Finally, Sun Chronicle All Stars included Brendan Carroll, Ed O'Brien, John Harrington and Ryan Kershaw, with O'Brien also earning a spot on the Brockton Enterprise team.

With the loss of only five seniors from the squad, the Hornets will look to continue the success which they have built upon for the past five years in the upcoming season.

GYMNASTICS

The Mansfield gymnastics team, led by Coach Cindy Arnold, started off this year with high hopes for the season. With three teams withdrawing from the league, the team lost a number of meets this year. The team also battled with various injuries, which affected their performances in the end. However the team persevered and ended up landing third place in the Hockomock League. Throughout their many injuries the team managed to carry on and ended their season third place in the Hockomock League.

The team was lead by senior captains Laura Angers and Erin Carroll who demonstrated great leadership. Veronique Lee and Jessa Donnelly showed their teammates what hard work and determination was all about. Britney Bolin played a huge part in the team's success in the floor and vault events. Despite Laura Angers wrist injury prior to the season, she managed to come back with full force and proved to be one of the Mansfield's finest competitors. Erin Carroll, being one of the teams well respected teammates, showed her skills on bars and floor. Danielle Langlois battled a tough knee injury, which forced her to sit out her entire senior season on floor and vault. When everyone was down they knew they could turn to senior manager, Melanie Bowdish, who always brought them smiles. Junior Kimberly Young, along with Alyssa Arceri proved to be young talent, with great potential for future years to come. Meghan Colleran represented the squad well on the bars, even with her unfortunate neck injury. Even though the seniors shoes will be hard to fill, the young talent strives to reach excellence.

BOYS WINTER TRACK

Winning titles is nothing new for the Mansfield High School Boy's Indoor Track team. The boys won another Division II state title and also had multiple individual Hockomock League and state champions. Senior Ryan Collins had another outstanding season for the Hornets, capturing the Hockomock League title and state title in the 2-mile, recording a time good for top five in the nation this year. Senior John Lutkevich also had a season to remember, he notched top times in the 1000 meters for the Hornets and helped anchor a solid 4x400 team along with Mark Capitanio, Brendan Barca, and Chris Harney.

Underclassmen also had a big part in the success of the Hornets this season. Sophomore phenom Dan Glavin won the Hockomock League title in the shot put and also finished second in the state in shot put throwing an astounding 54 feet. Along side Glavin, the team was lead by Junior Matt Callanan in the 55 meter hurdles. Callanan won the state title with senior teammate Pete Conti not too far behind.

Senior Joe Choiniere was finishing near the top all year in the 300, and senior Greg Martell was constantly finishing not too far behind Glavin and Junior Mike McPherson in the shot put. Coach Collins has a plethora of talent returning for the 2007-2008 season and no one should be surprised if the Hornets bring home another state title next season.

GIRLS WINTER TRACK

The 2006-2007 season wasn't the girls best season due to the loss of key point scorers from last year Hilary Crook, Melissa Murphy, and Courtney Lincoln. However, they did manage to pull through with a winning record of 5-3 in the Hock. Senior captains Meghan Clapp, Jane Bittner, Julia Bantimba and Kate Johnston all stepped it up an extra notch this year. Jane Bittner made a tremendous comback from a knee injury last year, and was one of the top 300 varsity runners. Kate Johnston had a tremendous season, and ended up placing 20th in the state. Other key throwers this season were Meghan Chadwick and Victoria Newell. In her first season of Winter Track, Meghan Ferreira broke the 55 meter hurdles record and 55 meter dash record, previously set by Courtney Lincoln, and at All-States broke her own school record again. She also broke the record for the Hockomock League Meet and Freshmen/ Sophmore Meet at Reggie Lewis for the hurdles. Meghan was the top point scorer, and the most valuable runner on the team.

It says a lot for a program when a 5-3 record is considered a down year. Even with the down record, great individual performances remained prevalent for the season. Meghan Clapp fell 0.1 seconds short of attaining the school record in 300 meter. Julia Bantimba made great strides during the season with her hurdle performances. Jodi James remained a key contributor with her breakout speed as one of the top 55 meter dash runners in the Hock. Other key performers were Elena Dominessey, Kacy Gillis, Alex George, and Kate Bailey. Look for underclassmen Anna Dominessey, Anastasia Lutkevich, Ally Dorval, and Liz Buckley to come back with good seasons for head coach Derek Ellis next season. The 2006-2007 girls indoor track team will be remembered for their determination and effort. Even with all the key senior losses from the previous season, the team never stopped believing in themselves and one another.

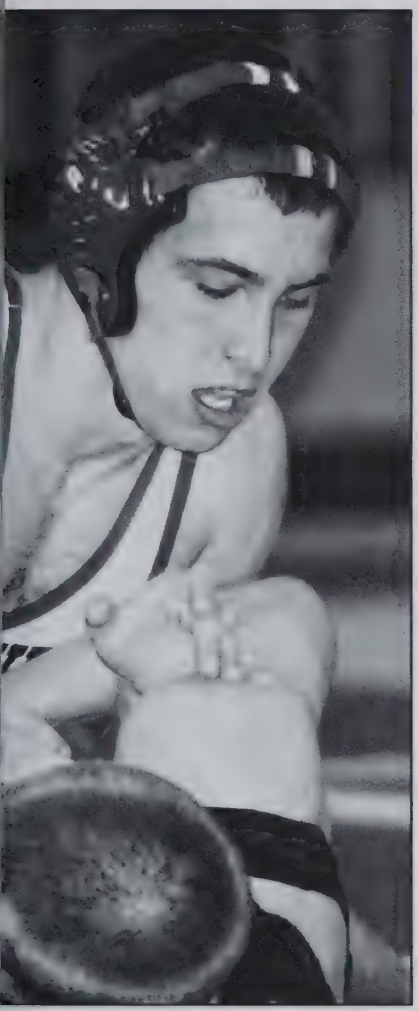
WRESTLING



The 2007 Mansfield Wrestling team had an outstanding year filled with individual accomplishments. Although wrestling is known as an individual sport each competitor cared about their teammates as much as themselves. Leadership started at the top with senior captains and sectional champs Dave Arnold and Jake Bolin. Although Dave Arnold suffered a devastating injury midway through the year, he battled back to become sectional champ. Jake Bolin was undefeated for most of the year, showing he had the determination to become the best. Steve Kourtelidis also wrestled very well to make him a top competitor in the league. John Fullerton, Joe Elich, and Eric Kelly also contributed many points toward Hornet victories. John Fullerton was the runner-up at sectionals after a long hard fought season. Junior Adam King also proved to bring great things to the future with his skills. Junior Tom Hansen, one of Mansfield's young and thriving stars, showed that he could hold his own on the mats.

The tremendous coaching staff of the Mansfield Wrestling Team was a main ingredient in the team's success. Experienced head coach Bryan Frasor brought to the season an experienced group of wrestlers, bringing back 6 seniors in all. The loss of the talented seniors is a big loss for the team. However, the team has solid young talent to fill the big shoes of the seniors in the upcoming season.

SWIMMING

The first year for any team is usually tough, but the 2007 Mansfield High School Swim Team made the most of their meets. Many swimmers that had only been able to swim on club teams before were given the opportunity to represent their school and town. Captains AJ Conlon, Michelle Hernon, and Lauren Desmond took the leadership role in the first year sport behind Coach Brennan and Coach Litchfield. The team was very fortunate and was able to use the new facilities at Wheaton College and it greatly helped them in their training allowing multiple swimmers to reach sectionals.

After picking up their first win in history at a home meet at Wheaton, the individual accomplishments started to pile up. The relay team of AJ Conlon, Zach Primiano, Jeetayu Biswas, and Matt Souza qualified after working very hard all year long. Matt Souza also reached sectionals as an individual and continued his outstanding swimming into the post season. Along with the boys, many of the female swimmers made it to sectionals as well. Senior Courtney Gilmore swam in the post season and swam well throughout the year. Taylor Briseno and Colleen Cuneo were the girl swimmers who reached sectionals in multiple events, along with Adrienne Brief-Pilz and Lindsay Sullivan who were each in one event.

The swim team should continue to grow and become a force to be reckoned with in the Hockomock League and state. Everyone expects the team's popularity to grow and with a young core of strong swimmers, the next few years should be very good ones for the swim team.

"We are well advised to keep on nodding terms with the people we used to be, whether we find them attractive company or not. Otherwise they turn up unannounced and surprise us, come hammering on the mind's door at 4am of a bad night and demand to know who deserted them, who betrayed them, who is going to make amends. We forget all too soon the things we thought we could never forget." What do you spend the most money on?

"Probably gas, it costs about $40 to fill up, and I fill up twice a month."

Ken Cramer

What do you do after school?

"I sit in Helen's room."

Ben Blaisdell

What do you do after school?

"I lift...all day."

Corey Eason

What do you do after school?

"I play basketball and soccer. I play sports, except during softball season, then I'm just a softball superfan."

Tim Mahoney

What is your biggest "pet" peeve?

"My cat licking himself. It grosses me out. It's nasty. He makes this weird noise."

Sean Hayes

What is your biggest pet peeve?

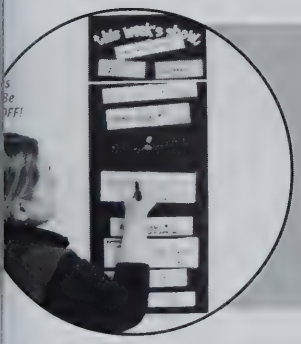
"Flipflops. I hate flipflops and Birkenstocks. I hate sandals in general...I'm going to stomp on them with my boots."

John Lutkevich

What is your biggest pet peeve?

"Unshaven legs - when girls wear mini-skirts and haven't shaved their legs for a month or so."

Tommy Dean



What do you do after school?

"I plan, edit, and film the scoop."

Lauren Brais

What is your biggest pet peeve?

"When people don't use their blinkers."

Johanna Greene

What do you spend the most money on?

"I don't spend money. I'm really cheap. I haven't spent money since the third grade."

"It's your life you are living and life is here.
It's not sometime later it's now, Jeannie dear.
It's not a road with a beginning and end
It leads not anywhere, it's the time you spend.
It's life when the sun shines. It's life when it rains.
It's not when you will get there, but riding the trains.
Life is not a stamp collection of memories of the past.
Life is in the present tense, the memory while it lasts
Don't think that once will come a day when we'll all be rich and smart, and laughter will be here to stay, and then real life will start.
Between the not-yet-gilded past and the time for which we strive lies, unnoticed and not to last,
the moment which is life."
-Eva Zeisel (1952)

We love you, Mom and Dad

Andrew Whittaker

Thank you so much for all the happiness and joy that you've given us. As you look back on your childhood may you smile at the wonderful memories. As you look forward to all the opportunities that are before you, always remember that your family loves you and supports you in everything you do. Be the very best person you can be. The future awaits you and may all your dreams come true.

We love you so very much,

A.J. Conlon

We are so proud of you and your accomplishments. Stay true to who you are and always believe that hard work and compassion towards others will pave your way to a successful future. Dad and I couldn't have said it better. Thank you A.J. for being who you are and staying true to yourself. Couldn't be any prouder. Love, Dad & Snoop

A.J. is a natural-born leader. His classmates find him easy to follow because of his ability to guide them in the right direction. A.J. is very kind and has a gentle nature. A real "Joy".
Love, Mrs. Dunphy

Caitlin Parker

We're extremely proud of all your accomplishments; you've always given your complete effort. We admire you, and we know that you will be successful. We'll miss you when you're at college ("we guess we are just a two-some"), but continue to try hard and strive to do your best. We hope your future be filled with happiness and may "all your dreams stay big."

Love you, Mom and Dad

Tim Mahoney

No matter how you choose to get there, it's all about the destination. Congratulations, Tim! You've made us proud every step of the journey.

Your birthday was one of our greatest gifts. You have taught us more than us you. Pero no existen suficiente palabras en el mundo para expresar lo maravillosa que tu eres....
You fill our hearts with pride and happiness. Love, Mom (your biggest fan) and Dad xoxo

"I am going to seek the great perhaps" were Francois Rabelais' famous last words. You being my sister and my absolute best friend, I encourage you to seek your own great perhaps in life. You're the wisest, most beautiful person I've ever met and I look up to you more than I do anyone else. Follow your heart and your greatest goal in life and stick with it. I think the intelligent, beautiful person you are will have no trouble seeking the 'great perhaps' in life, that you truly desire. I love you. Paige

We are so proud of the man you've become. We couldn't have hand picked a kinder, more compassionate son. May all your dreams come true. We love you, Mom , Dad and Arianna.

"I hope the days come easy and moments pass slow, and each road leads you where you wanna go,
and if you're faced with a choice, and you have to choose,
I hope you choose the one that means the most to you.
And if one door opens to another door closed,
I hope you keep on waklin' till you find the window,
if it's cold outside show the world the warmth of your smile,
But more than anything, more than anything,
My wish for you, is that this life becomes all that you want it to,
your dreams stay big, your worries stay small,
You never need to carry more than you can hold,
and while you're out there getting where you're getting to,
I hope you know somebody loves you.
Yeah, this, is my wish."

Your success is not a matter of idle chance,
it's a matter of making the right choices.
It's not something you wait for,
but rather something you achieve with effort.
Things won't turn up in this world until you turn them up.
Success is neither magical nor mysterious.
The people who truly succeed in the world are the people who look for the circumstances they want,
and, if they can't find them, make them.
Don't sit on the sidelines, get in the game.
Your access to success has no limits.
The great opportunity in your life is where you are right now.
Every situation, properly perceived,
becomes an opportunity for you.
You have grand opportunities all around you.
Open your eyes, and you will find it.
If you have the desire, you have the power.
Taking action is all that is required.
Love, Dad, Mom, Sharon, Jonathan & David

Colleen McLaughlin

We are so proud of you and all you've accomplished. Your commitment to everything you do is inspiring. We know this commitment will lead to a successful and happy future. Stay true to yourself and remember the best is yet to come. Go Sox P.A.W.

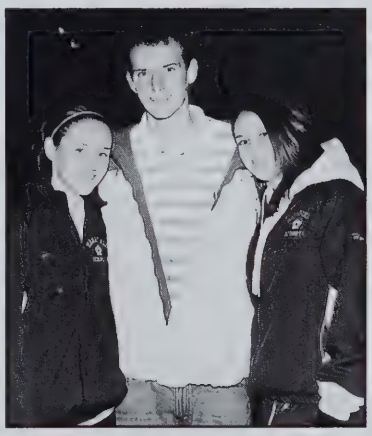
Where has the time gone? What a joy it has been watching you become the beautiful and talented young woman that you are. We have had some great times together and we know there are more to come. Always remember how proud we are of you and that we will always be here if you need us. We love you Shell.

Love, Mom, Dad, Tom and Shan



Courtney Elizabeth Gilmore

To my daughter Courtney, no longer my little girl, you're a lovely young woman about to adventure into this world. I still see you in your dresses with your pretty shiny shoes, the day you cut your own hair to look pretty at preschool, the way you swam the butterfly so graceful across the pool, your strength when you crossed the monkey bars to challenge Kerry to a duel, playing house with Danny and the scary things you did to frighten your brother Jimmy when he was just a little kid. I may not always tell you throughout our hectic days; I'm proud of you dear Courtney for all your special ways. I love you my daughter, my friend, Love, Mom

Courtney,
I am so proud of the woman you have become. You are intelligent, kind, loving and charismatic. I am proud to be your sister. You are one of my best friends and I wish you the best of luck with graduation and your future endeavors.
Love, Kerry

Great Job Courtney!

Sometimes in life, you find a special friend;
Someone who changes your life just by being part of it;
Someone who makes you laugh until you can't stop;
Someone who makes you believe that there really is good in the world.
Someone who convinces you that there really is an unlocked door just waiting for you to open it.
And if you find such a friend, you feel happy and complete,
because you need not worry.
You have a forever friend for life, and forever has no end.

To Julia Bantimba, Robyn Foley, Veronique Lee, Arielle Bluestein, Laura Angers, Michaela Ross, Kelsey Anderson, Kristen Fleck, Courtney Gilmore, Jill Hallgren, Kristen Sankey, Meghan Scott, Erin Carroll, and all of Julie's friends whose names we cannot remember or never heard:

"A good friend is hard to find, hard to lose, and impossible to forget."

"Friendship is the golden ribbon that ties the world together."

Congratulations and thank you for your support over the years. Julie was certainaly blessed with many friends. She never knew how many lives she touched.
Best Wishes for a successful future,
The Duggan Family

"A friend is a shoulder to lean on, an ear to listen, and a heart to comfort."
